SIMPLYRESET

Escape for an hour. Simply reset yourself.

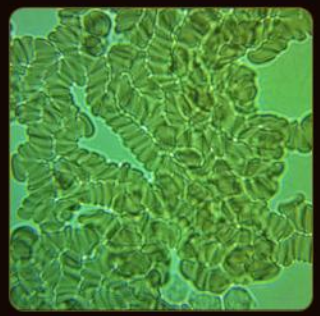

The longevity ritual your guests can see for themselves.

One calm hour, fully clothed. Their own cells, on screen.

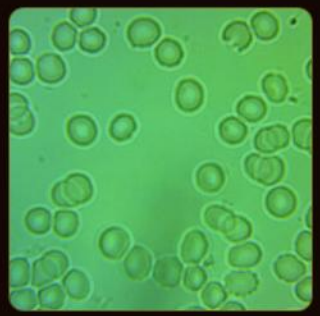

Bring SimplyReset to your spa, clinic or club.

The best bit is on the last page.

Microscopic view before the session

Microscopic view after the session

A drop of blood. A microscope.

A reading in millivolts.

Their own cells, on screen.

Before and after images, and readings, kept for each guest's own records.

A private visual record of the guest's own session.

Real photos of one client. A measurement, not a diagnosis.

We do not give clinical advice or diagnosis. We simply show the visual record.

The CellVolt Protocol. One hour, fully clothed. A quiet wellbeing experience.

Guests from eight years old to 80.

Over 2,000 clients in sixteen years.
Four in five come back.

Switch off. An hour set aside from everyday noise.

A quiet hour

Time away from everyday noise. Guests watch their own session on screen.

Wellbeing

A fully clothed, personal wellness experience.

A personal reset

An hour set aside for rest and reflection.

Historical FDA context for specific magnetic-field device categories is available in the evidence section.

1 Welcome 15 minutes

A quiet welcome over tea. The guest can ask about the experience and decide whether it is right for them.

2 Visual record On screen

A guest who chooses the visual comparison sees their own record on screen before the hour.

3 The hour 1 hour

Lights low. Alone in the room, a word away from us through your headset. Your own music, your choice. Fully clothed. Several systems at once. The CellVolt Protocol.

4 Your record After

A second visual record over a cup of tea. The pictures are yours to keep.

5 We stay with you Your choice

The same therapist whenever we can. Follow ups only if and when you want them.

01 A visual record to keep.

Their own session, shown on screen, with a copy of the visual record.

02 A carefully designed experience.

A one-hour, multi-system wellness experience with quiet space, personal choice and a clear guest journey.

03 Historical FDA context.

Magnetic-field devices have historical FDA authorisations for specific devices and labelled uses. That history is not an approval of CellVolt.

Read the historical context.

THE GUEST EXPERIENCE

A quiet hour, built around the guest.

Fully clothed. Personal music. A calm room. A private visual record if they choose it.

Each visit is personal. No result is promised, and no diagnosis is given.

See the full experience in a private demonstration.
